General Guidelines for ICAST' 2001 Authors/Presenters

Congratulations on the acceptance of your paper for publication in the proceedings of ICAST 2001. PLEASE READ THE FOLLOWING INFORMATION CAREFULLY BEFORE FORMATTING YOUR PAPER!

A sample paper format with the formatting instructions for authors is attached and also available in the ICSA' 2001 web site located at: http://macs.csu.edu/~macapa/icast. If you have any question regarding formatting or publication, please feel free to contact either of the program chairs. All contact and conference related information will be posted in this web site and keep updated as soon as the information becomes available.

- PAGE LIMIT - 8 pages. Up to 4 extra pages are allowed, at a cost of $100.00 US EACH page. 12 pages is the absolute maximum! Please make your check payable to: ICAST 2001 and include it with your paper. The paper will not be published if extra pages are not paid.

- REGISTRATION: You should receive the conference registration form in this package. Please fill it in and send the form, registration payment together with the camera-ready paper back to us. If you have questions about registration, please contact Dr. Hual-Te Chien at 630-922-0688 or e-mail: htchien@anl.gov.

- PRESENTATION FACILITY: Overhead projector is the default facility. If you need any specific A/V equipment, such as LCD projector, slide projector, etc., please indicate them in the attached form for facility need and send it back to us.

- DEADLINE – August 30, 2001. Your paper, facility form, registration form and fee (with extra page charge payment, if any) MUST be received by the deadline.
  NOTE: Papers can not be published if any extra-page payment, registration form, or registration fee is not received by this date.

- MAILING your paper - Write ICAST2001 on the envelope and send it to
